The Ford Motor Company Undergraduate Scholarship was established by an endowment to the Bourns College of Engineering from Ford Motor Company to encourage and aid undergraduate students in pursuit of careers in engineering. The award is given annually to offset University of California, Riverside academic expenses.

Eligibility - To apply you must:

- Have, or plan to have, a working relationship with CE-CERT;
- Be a full-time undergraduate student at the University of California, Riverside;
- Be currently pursuing a B.S. degree;
- Have a minimum grade point average of 3.0.

Application Statement:

Create a two page (single-spaced) statement that describes your educational and career goals, along with your financial need. The key questions to answer are, “How would you spend this funding if you received it?” and “How would this funding enhance your research?” Create your statement as a part of this document beginning on the next page.
